

Secular

Party of Australia

The Secular Party of Australia is concerned about the rising influence of religion on government policy. We wish to establish and maintain a true separation of church and state in Australia.

WE STAND FOR:

- Freedom of thought and conscience, human rights and marriage equality
- Rights of people to control their own destiny, such as voluntary euthanasia
- The use of rationality to address social, economic and environmental issues

WE STAND AGAINST:

- Government subsidies and tax breaks for religious organisations
- Government support of schools which force religion onto all students
- Discrimination based on gender, ethnicity, religiosity or sexuality

Senate Candidates for Western Australia

ATKINS, Edward

CUTHBERT, Simon Andrew

For candidates' profiles, visit our website at: www.secular.org.au

HOW TO VOTE Secular IN WESTERN AUSTRALIA:

Look for the name Secular Party of Australia on the ballot sheet.

Please take this form to the polling booth on September 7.

Place 1 in the box for Group J

Our preferences are allocated to Greens, ALP then Coalition (major groups).

Authorised by Moira Clarke, 6 Belmont Place, Banksia Park, South Australia 5091

Printed by: The Environmental Printing Company, Unit 2, 20 Commerce St, Malaga WA 6090